Talented Youth competed at the Summer World Show aboard their lightning-quick Paints.

By Megan Larson

On Monday, June 29, young speedsters from across the United States descended on the Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth, Texas, to clock their best times in barrel racing, pole bending and stake race at the 2009 AjPHA/APHA Summer World Championship Show.

Some competitors, like Shelton Headley of Port Gibson, Mississippi, brought multiple Paints to the event. Others, including Maddie Devereaux of Meeker, Oklahoma, brought only one to their very first World Show. Seasoned or not, their experiences were much the same, as Youth across the board described the show as enjoyable and worthwhile.

A talented rider, Headley won a world championship in Youth Pole Bending (14–18) with Slide A Way Sally, and earned both the world and reserve champion titles in Youth Stake Race (14–18) with Heza Lucky Fox and Slide A Way Sally, respectively. In the saddle of Midnight Sierra, Devereaux won world championships in both Youth Barrel Racing (13 & Under) and Youth Pole Bending (13 & Under).

"I was really happy," said Devereaux about her win. "It was my first World Show, so I was really excited and proud of myself and my horse. She did a good job."

Caitlin Core of Folsom, Louisiana, brought her ex-racehorse to compete at the World Show. Her 1995 bay tobiano gelding Scootin Hoot earned nearly $2,500 on the racetrack and a Register of Merit in racing. Sired by Easy Jet Too, a 1983 Champion Running 2-Year-Old, and out of Western Sky, a 1990 Champion Running Breeding Stock 3-Year-Old, Scootin Hoot and Caitlin placed third in Youth Barrel Racing (13 & Under).

Caitlin's mom, Kim, says Scootin Hoot had also qualified for the Wrangler Junior High National Finals in Mississippi and has placed well at junior high rodeos. Nonetheless, she and Caitlin were still very much excited when their Paint placed so high at his first APHA show after they purchased him only a year ago.

Regardless of the Youth and their Paints' previous success and experience, each and every competitor put on their best spurs and hat and rode as fast as they could while maneuvering around barrels and poles. Congratulations to everyone.
